

Academic Writing Workshop

Invitation

Empowering Knowledge: Researcher Author Workshops

Registration: www.elsevierafrika.com (click on Event & Training).

In pursuit of the strategic vision of promoting research and Scholarship culture at our university, the Vice Chancellor and the Principal, Professor Rob Midgely in conjunction with Elsevier publishers invite all the current and emerging researchers/authors to an academic writing workshop organized by the library and research office. The workshops will take place on the following Campuses and dates:

1. 6 March 2017 - 10h00 - 14h00- Mthatha Campus
2. 7 March 2017 - 10h00 - 14h00 - Butterworth - Ibika Campus
3. 8 March 2017 - 10h00 - 14h00 - East London- BCC Campus

Who should attend the workshops: All researchers / all academics aspiring to write their research articles and publish, librarians who are expected to support and help researchers with effective ways of finding and using relevant information of various formats and students in the process of either drafting Masters and Doctoral research proposals or publishing articles out of their thesis.

Programme (All Campuses)

1. Welcome: Campus Rector

- 6 March 2017 - Prof Jay Jadezweni
- 7 March 2017 - Prof Victor Mtetwa
- 8 March 2017 - Dr Prince Jaca

2. Introduction of Guests (Elsevier): Ms PP Ntshuntshe-Matshaya,

3. Elsevier Facilitator - Workshop Commences: Ms Karen Metcalf

4. Vote of Thanks: Dr Bandla Cishe: Director Research Support

Lunch and refreshments will be served. Please RSVP libdir@wsu.ac.za and bgxwem@wsu.ac.za by stating your name and your preferred venue. All Queenstown academics are free to attend on any campus. We are sorry that we could not secure the date for them in this round.

A developmental university...

• technological • scientific • innovative • responsive

www.wsu.ac.za