SECTION D: POPIA DECLARATION

The individual may withdraw consent to the processing of personal information at any time, and should they wish to do so, must provide FASSET with reasonable notice to this effect. Please note that withdrawal of consent is still subject to the terms and conditions of any contract that is in place. Should the withdrawal of consent result in the interference of legal obligations, then such withdrawal will only be effective if FASSET agrees to same in writing. FASSET specifically draws to the attention that the withdrawal of consent may result in it being unable to provide the requested information and/or services and/or financial or other benefits. Further, please note that the revocation of consent is not retroactive and will not affect disclosures of personal information that have already been made. To withdraw consent, please contact the Information Officer at popia@FASSET.org.za.

Where personal information has changed in any respect, the individual is encouraged to notify FASSET so that our records may be updated. FASSET will largely rely on the individual to ensure that personal information is correct and accurate.

The individual has the right to access their personal information that FASSET may have in its possession and is entitled to request the identity of which third parties have received and/or processed personal information for the purpose. Please note however, that any request in this regard may be declined if:

- the information comes under legal privilege during litigation,
- the disclosure of personal information in the form that it is processed may result in the disclosure of confidential or proprietary information,
- giving access may cause a third party to refuse to provide similar information to FASSET,
- the information was collected in furtherance of an investigation or legal dispute, instituted or being contemplated,
